

Piano Lessons Live Online

At Music Lessons Anywhere we specialize in one-to-one piano lessons live online for ages from six to seniors, just you and a teacher, for fun or to take ABRSM exams.

We work on technique and a wide repertoire to keep lessons fun. Currently ABRSM exams can be taken in 93 countries and we arrange them for you wherever you are. All our students gain consistently high pass marks.

- We can talk about what you want and how you would like to learn.
- All lessons are geared for your particular needs.
- After every lesson we email notes about the lesson so you can revise what we covered, easily see what you need to work on and track your progress:

Lesson date: 1st November 2015
Duration: 30 minutes
Name: [REDACTED]
Exercises
Grade 3 scales all good and are above the exam pass mark, just a few small slips and false starts. Try and get to a place where you can play the scales without thinking about them because they need to be played a little quicker in the exam. Contrary motion and chromatic are excellent. Arpeggios are great, just check Eb fingers.
Pieces
Your pieces are excellent and more than ready for the exam! Just work on the fine details
German Dance (mock grade 25) - Not as secure as the other two pieces. Try and play line 4 quieter it's p not f and secure the thirds.
Poco (mock grade 28) - really great, but try not to force some of the notes on line 2, still do the dynamics but be more subtle.
Sunset (mock grade 29) - Love it! Bar 8 more diminuendo and the last right hand note q quieter.
Sight Reading
No 21. Missed some of the flats but all the note played correctly apart from a few LH ones. Continue playing the exam exercises and the other music I emailed you.
Theory
Continue working through grade 1 http://www.mymusictheory.com/
Aural
One mark away from maximum marks! You have spent time working on aural, hardly any slips, well done. Continue with the grade 3 aural exercises on http://e-musicmaestro.com/auraltests/grade3/
Composing
After the exam!
Summary
You are well on track for getting excellent marks in your exam, just spend a little more time on sight reading.

- Practical and music theory lessons for fun or for exams

Whatever your piano or keyboard lesson needs may be, we can fulfill them. Practical lessons in playing can include music theory. Blocks of lessons can be structured into complete courses to attain ABRSM exams. They can be top up lessons, crash courses, theory cramming, or just for fun... just ask!

- Music lessons arranged at mutually convenient times

One advantage of online music lessons is that there is no travelling time involved, so simply position your laptop, iPad, tablet or smart phone and you're ready for your lesson. We can arrange lessons that fit both your schedule and ours. After you contact me, I will get back to you to arrange a time to meet through a Skype video call which is free of charge. We will discuss your needs and what lesson times are available to match yours.

- Take lessons with a teacher, live, anywhere in the world

Take lessons where ever you are, with me or Chris, we're both professional teachers, live, anywhere in the world. All you need is a laptop or computer (with webcam and microphone), iPad, tablet or smart phone placed next to your piano or keyboard, an internet connection and you're ready for your piano or keyboard lesson. Practically all laptops are already equipped with a built in webcam and built in microphone which are fine for online lessons. You can be set up in your music room, study, living room or garden!

Wherever your piano or keyboard, laptop, computer or iPad is, you can take your lesson.

- Learn in the comfort of your own home

The advantage of piano lessons live online is that you will have live and direct access to an experienced and professional piano, keyboard and classroom music teacher with over 20 year's experience and with countless students passing ABRSM exams, from the comfort of your own home or studio.

- Our students say online lessons are no different to traditional lessons

Live online lessons are like regular one-to-one lessons, face to face with a teacher, except with online lessons the teacher and student are face to face through Skype video calls, Google Hangouts or Facetime. Students who have had piano and keyboard lessons from me locally and who have switched to online lessons for convenience have commented that online lessons are no different.

"I have been taking lessons from Tracy for just a few weeks after trying unsuccessfully to find a teacher locally. Initially I was very sceptical about how successful piano lessons via Skype would be, I shouldn't have worried, I continue to be amazed at just how well it works."

- Lessons can be recorded to use at practise and for reference

With your online music lesson channelled through your computer, unlike traditional lessons with a teacher in the room, it's easy to record your lesson. Your recorded lesson can be played back for revision, to accompany your practise sessions and for reference and reminders before your next lesson. There are lots of different video recording apps available, some already built in like Quicktime for Mac, some specifically designed to work with Skype, for example Ecamm for Mac, or Evaer for PC.

- Regular events for all Music Lessons Anywhere Students, free of charge!

We arrange and manage group meetings for our students who wish to take part in these events where they get together from all over the world. Events include Theory Club, Aural Workshops, Musical Get-Togethers and Practise Partners. We even hold an annual concert where any students wishing to play, can perform live from their homes wherever they are in the world, to an audience in the concert venue, through Skype, projected onto a big screen, alongside local students playing in the venue. Our concerts are also webcast for anyone to watch from anywhere in the world!

And piano lessons live online are ideal for people who travel a lot. This is Maggie, one of our youngest students, taking her lesson from a hotel room!
